Subject: Next Ringwood CAG Meeting

Hi All,

Wanted to give you a heads up that the newly reorganized Ringwood CAG is planning to meet on Thursday, June 8th at the Ringwood Library at 7pm. That's pretty much all I know right now – I haven't received an agenda. Once I get confirmation from the CAG, I will let you know. They have reserved a room at the library and I plan to go there tomorrow to check out the room. Once I hear it's definite, I will get back to you with whatever info I have. Wenke stated that they have reserved the room at the library for the second Thursday of the month....stay tuned!

Thanks

Pat
